Special to this opening will be Santino Fontana, an artist I have long admired and been wanting to present. He's truly one of the most talented and sought-after singing actors on the Broadway/concert stage today and I can't wait to introduce him to the Bay Area audience. Our short season will conclude with a knock-out performance by Stephanie J. Block, a critically acclaimed veteran of so many landmark Broadway musicals and television shows. I look forward to welcoming back the audience to the elegant Venetian Room for these two memorable concerts."

Bay Area Cabaret is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that presents extraordinary performances by high-caliber artists in a variety of elegant venues in the San Francisco Bay Area. For decades, cabaret was a mainstay type of entertainment throughout the world. Our goal is to not only reintroduce this wonderful type of entertainment but to expand the definition of cabaret by integrating its tradition of intimate settings along with a more modern approach - which includes the affinity and connection between artist and material along with the intimacy between artist and audience - and expanding it to include not only the Great American Songbook but jazz, Broadway, blues and pop. Since Bay Area Cabaret started in 2004, the organization has presented the kind of celebrity artists you don't often get to see in the Bay Area - Grammy, Emmy, Tony and Academy Award-winning artists such as Chita Rivera, John Pizzarelli & Jessica Molaskey, Barbara Cook, Marvin Hamlisch, and Leslie Odom, Jr.

In 2010, the Fairmont San Francisco approached Bay Area Cabaret to reopen its legendary Venetian Room, one of the most elegant showrooms in the world - where Tony Bennett first sang "I Left My Heart In San Francisco" and artists such as Ella Fitzgerald, Peggy Lee, Nat King Cole, Tina Turner and The Supremes performed on a regular basis. After being "dark" for 21 years, Bay Area Cabaret is proud to call the Venetian Room "home" as the sole presenters of live entertainment in this glorious venue.

Tickets for each upcoming Bay Area Cabaret program are $90 pp and go on sale March 1. To purchase tickets, visit bayareacabaret.org or phone (415) 927-4636.

Acting out of an abundance of caution in order to try to protect its artists, staff and audience from the risk of COVID-19 infection, Bay Area Cabaret will limit the Venetian Room seating capacity dramatically for these two performances. All ticket-holders for both spring programs will be required to show proof of full COVID-19 vaccination and required to wear a mask during the performance. For these performances only, drinks will not be permitted in the Venetian Room, but may be enjoyed in the adjacent Laurel Court prior to the performance. The Venetian Room, Fairmont San Francisco is located at 950 Mason Street atop Nob Hill.
